A MORE enjoyable, better produced play never came to Fairmont than "Scandal," the Cosmo Hamilton comedy presented last night at the Grand. Every part was delightfully handled, the players themselves showing ability far above the average of performers who come to Fairmont, and the audience was duly appreciative. Why is it that the good shows so often draw a meager attendance and the inferior ones get the full houses? Probably if we could answer this we would make a fortune, but in the instance of "Scandal" we realize that there were other important attractions in town yesterday which, naturally enough, prevented many from visiting the Grand. However, such good attractions as "Scandal" deserve better support—they are provided for the enjoyment of Fairmonters and many a pleasant evening may be overlooked by those who fail to follow the theatrical news.

This Is a Good One.

Three highly pleased audiences saw the opening bill of the Maryland Beauties at the Hipp yesterday, and the verdict was unanimous that the entertainment was above the average, and that the company is all to the good. Happy Freyer as the comedian is of a type so unusual that though the lines he happens to have are not sparklingly new, the style of delivery is so different that they get a laugh. The little bill is full of situations that abound in good humor and clever quips that just tickle one all the time. Harry and Jane Platt are big time folks that do a specialty which has class written all over it. The little lady is nice to look upon, has a very pretty voice, and actually reads lines. Her partner is a nice gentlemanly looking fellow with excellent stage presence, good voice, which one does not need to be told is trained, and possessed of a free easy manner that is attractive. The team has some dialogue that is easy to listen to, and their singing is one of the nicest little features seen at the Hipp. They got strong encores yesterday, and many complimentary remarks were heard on their work.

Burlesque Standard Getting Higher.

It has come to pass that burlesque attractions to be successful must organize along lines of the high class musical comedies and must have in their ranks men and women whose reputations as fun makers is recognized all along the show line. This is the case of the Jolly Girls organization which is at the Grand tomorrow. The company is headed by John J. Black and Sue Milford who are ably assisted by such well known vaudeville headliners as Jim Crowley, Jolly Johnson, the Carl Roberts Trio, and a chorus of such exceptionally young and handsome girls, all of whom can sing and dance as well as wear gorgeous wardrobe, which is enough to guarantee pleasing performance will be given.

Morocco Play Coming.

"The Bird of Paradise" which will be seen at the Grand Theatre Thursday, presents an alluring regime in a beautiful land. The scene is Hawaii, and the tale of romance, intrigue and superstitions is carefully woven. The period is in the early 90's. Luana, a native princess, falls in love with Dr. Wilson, an American who has come to Hawaii for the bacillus of leprosy. Instead, he marries the little girl and gradually sinks lower and lower. Mr. Morocco, under whose direction the piece is produced, has collected a clever cast headed by Ann Reader, a nineteen year old actress of exceptional ability.

It's a big play that grips the heart and brings the sob to the voice. Richard Walton Tully has spent years on the peaks that rise out of the warm waters of the South Pacific and the claim is made that the tropical atmosphere of our distant insular possession is faithfully reproduced in "The Bird of Paradise." Olive Morocco's stage settings have received unstinted praise for their truthfulness. A native Hawaiian band of singers will sing plaintive lullaby and other songs of the South Seas during the action of the play.

On the Nelson screen today is pictured "The Echo of Youth" a scenario by Ivan Abramson. Aside from saying that it is a strong heart-touching story that grips you right from the start, and holds you until the problems of the finish, he continues to be unbroken. The undeniably suspense so necessary of successful picture making follows sequential actions as life is pictured so nearly as we see and know it. Added to this, clear photography, rich appointments splendid lighting all of which harmonize with the inspirational theme, and you have a really excellent picture. William S. Hart is also programmed for the Nelson today in "The Hour of Manhood."

Divorce Story Repeats Today.

This little synopsis of the story "Happiness a La Mode" which is repeating at the Dixie today may help to make the film more interesting.

"The young wife of the story, 'Happiness a La Mode', made the mistake of being too considerate of her husband, failing to provide that proof of wifely devotion which is indicated by a gratifying amount of anxiety over a husband's comings and goings. In the case of the Townsends it resulted in the other woman worming herself into the affections of the husband by suggestions concerning his wife's indifference, which inspired in himself pity, resulting in a fancied regard for Dorothy Mitchell, the other woman.

Succession to Dorothy's flattery and attention, Townsend tells his wife he is going to get a divorce. The employment of a divorce lawyer brings about amusing incidents relating to the establishment of fake evidence; and after a time they are placed on three months' probation awaiting the granting of the final decree.

During the probation period Mrs. Townsend decides to take a hand, and while her husband pays attention to his fiancée, she fills his shoes of "the other woman," and wins him in spite of himself.

A Primitive Story.

Not written or done primitively, but written about primitive folks, is the story "Forest Rivals" which the Princess is showing today. Dorothy Green and Arthur Ashley are featured. The second number on the bill is "The Great Gamble" a serial which has been running at the Princess for some weeks.

West Virginia to Have Roosevelt Day

CHARLESTON, Oct. 14.—Governor Cornwell today issued a proclamation setting apart Monday, October 27, as "Roosevelt Day" in which an effort will be made to raise West Virginia's share of the National Roosevelt Memorial Fund.

Mrs. Fannie Sellins' Body is Exhumed

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 14.—The body of Mrs. Fannie Sellins, organizer for the United Mine Workers, who was shot and killed August 26, near the mines of the Allegheny Coal and Coke company at West Natrona, where there was a strike of mine workers, was exhumed today at the instance of Fred B. Broad, a son-in-law.

The coroner said he did not know why the examination was made. It was believed however, that suits in connection with the woman's death might be instituted. A coroner's jury returned a verdict in the case that the woman met death during a riot at the mine and last week the grand jury ignored true pills charging deputy sheriffs with causing her death.

The Quick Way to Stop a Cough

This home-made syrup does the work in a hurry. Easily prepared, and saves about $1.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt relief it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually a cough is the harbinger of a cold or chest ailment in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Put 2-3 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle, then fill it up with granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup. And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for the 2-3 ounces of Pinex with direction and don't accept anything with a different name. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded.
